METHOD

Coq au vin

- 1. Place the chicken, skin side down, with the mushrooms, garlic, wine, bay leaves, star anise, cloves, juniper berries and celery in a large ceramic dish and refrigerate, covered, overnight.
- 2. Strain and reserve the liquid.
- 3. Heat oil in a pan on medium heat, induction setting 6-7. Sauté vegetables and spices until coloured. Remove from pan and set aside.
- 4. Heat the marinating liquid in the same pan on high heat, induction setting 8. Reduce the heat to medium-high, induction setting 7 and cook until the liquid is reduced to 100 ml. Add the chicken stock and return to the boil.
- 5. Pre-heat the combi steam Pro oven on Fan Plus at 170°C.
- 6. Place the chicken and vegetables in an unperforated steam container and pour over the boiling stock.
- 7. Cook the lardons in a separate pan on medium-high heat, induction setting 7 until crispy and then add to the chicken.
- 8. Place chicken on shelf position 2.
  - Select Combination Mode.
  - Select Fan Plus at 170°C + 1 hour + 100% Moisture.
- 9. Remove from the oven and rest for 25 minutes.
- 10. Remove the chicken and pull the knuckle from the leg and discard. Strain liquid and cook on medium- high heat, induction setting 7 until liquid has thickened a little.
- 11. Add butter and tarragon, whisk to combine before pouring over the chicken and vegetables. Season to taste.

Pickled onions

- 1. Peel and cut onions in half horizontally. Place onions in a sterilised jar.
- 2. Bring the water, vinegar and sugar to the boil on medium heat, induction setting 6-7, stirring until sugar has dissolved. Pour hot pickling liquid over onions and seal jar. Set aside to cool.

To serve

- 1. Scatter pickled onion petals around the chicken.
- 2. Serve with crusty bread and butter.
